GENERAL REGULATIONS

1. Value. All competitive scholarships awarded from the Foundation will provide the full tuition fees of £63 per annum.

2. Tenure. The normal tenure of these scholarships will be for three years.

3. Extension. In some cases extension for a fourth year may be possible.

Such extensions will only be granted on the recommendation of the Principal if he considers that the work and progress of the scholar justifies it. In no circumstances will extension for more than one additional year be granted.

4. Conditions. The subject of competition, age limits and other conditions will be published at the beginning of January for each scholarship to be offered and particulars with entry form may be had on application to the Secretary at that time.

5. Date of Competitions. Competitions will take place in April and successful candidates will commence their studies in the September following.

6. Cancellation of Award. Scholars failing to commence their studies in September will forfeit the award and the scholarship will be declared vacant. In such cases the Committee of Management may award the scholarship to the "proxime accessit" or hold another competition.

7. Entries. Candidates may compete for more than one scholarship, but no person will be awarded more than one.

8. Eligibility. The holder of any Academy or Associated Board Scholarship or Exhibition is ineligible to compete for any other scholarship or exhibition offered by either of these bodies.

In the case of open scholarships, students of the Academy will be ineligible to compete later than their second academic year.

9. If the progress or conduct of a scholar or exhibitioner is unsatisfactory, the Committee of Management may declare the scholarship or exhibition vacant and hold a new election for the residue of the term thereof.

10. The award of any scholarship or exhibition is subject to the acceptance by the candidate of the general regulations of the Academy and of the curriculum arranged by the Principal.

11. No departure from, or alteration in the foregoing regulations can be made, except by special resolution of the Committee of Management.

The following scholarships are not included in the Scholarship Foundation and will be awarded under the conditions stated. They will be subject to the same general regulations as the scholarships in the foundation.

ASSOCIATED BOARD OF THE ROYAL SCHOOLS OF MUSIC.

Six scholarships, founded in 1897 in commemoration of the Diamond Jubilee of her late Most Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, are offered each year by the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, and are competed for by candidates from Britain and Ireland who have passed with distinction in Grade VII. (Advanced), or Grade VIII. (Final) of the Local Examinations of the Associated Board, and have qualified in Theory. Three of these scholarships are tenable at the R.A.M., and three at the R.C.M. Successful candidates are entitled to at least two years' free musical education with the possibility of extension for a third and fourth year.

The competitions take place in April/May. Particulars can be obtained from the Secretary, Associated Board, 14 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1.

Eighteen scholarships, each of the value of £200 per annum for three years' tenure, are also provided by the Associated Board for candidates from the Dominions and Colonies of the British Commonwealth. Six fall vacant each year, three at the R.A.M., and three at the R.C.M., and awards are made by the Board in accordance with particulars given in the overseas edition of the Board's syllabus of examinations.

BAUME (MANX) SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded in 1904 out of the estate of the late PETER HENRY JOSEPH BAUME, Esq., of Douglas, Isle of Man.

This scholarship is awarded for promise in any branch of music to candidates between the ages of 16 and 22 years. The scholarship is tenable only by persons born in the Isle of Man, or born of Manx parents, within certain limitations.

Candidates are required to pay an entrance fee of one guinea on entering their names, and must produce a certificate of birth. They must pass a simple examination in general education previous to the musical competition. A candidate is exempt from the Literary Examination who can produce a certificate of either of the University Local Examinations, or who shall have attained such a position at school or college as the Committee may consider sufficient. Such exemption must be claimed when sending in entry form, and must be accompanied by certificate referred to above. The examination and competition will be held at such time and place as may be appointed by the Committee.

The successful candidate is entitled to the benefits of the Scholarship for three years in the Academy, subject to the regulations of the Committee of Management.

The value of the Scholarship is £50 per annum.

THE NAT AND OLIVE EDWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS.

Founded by bequest of the late DOROTHY MARTHA EDWARDS of Pontypool.

Two scholarships are awarded for violin playing and are open to candidates of either sex between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one years, born in South Wales or in the County of Monmouth.

The successful candidates are entitled to free tuition for three years (with possible extension for a further year), subject to the rules and regulations of the Royal Academy of Music.

Each candidate will be required to pay a fee of one guinea on entry and to produce certificate of birth.

LILIAN ELDÉE SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded by the late COLONEL C. W. E. DUNCOMBE, 1905.

This scholarship is held at the Royal Academy of Music and the Royal College of Music alternately, and in the case of the R.A.M. is conferred by the Committee of Management upon such female vocal student of the R.A.M. as may in their judgment be most deserving thereof.

The value is at present £48 per annum, which sum is to be devoted to the assistance of the scholar in the further development of her art, either in England or abroad. The Committee may at their discretion elect a scholar for two years, or two scholars for one year each.

SIR JOHN GOSS SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded by subscription, 1875, as a testimonial to

SIR JOHN GOSS, Kt., Mus. D. Cantab., Hon. R.A.M. (1800—1880),
Composer, Organist of St. Paul's Cathedral, and Professor in the Academy.

This is open for competition by chorister Boys (to be elected by the Council of the Royal College of Organists).

The holder is entitled to three years' instruction in the Academy.

The examination is held by the Royal College of Organists.

Further subscriptions to the fund of this scholarship will be appropriated to the increase of its annual value.

Applications should be addressed to the Hon. Secretary, Royal College of Organists, Kensington Gore, S.W. 7.

THE GRABOWSKY-CONNELL SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded in 1950 by Mrs. Grabowsky-Connell, A.R.A.M., in memory of her husband, the late ARTHUR CONNELL, Esq., of Dougalston, Milngavie.

This scholarship is awarded by competition to vocalists (any voice) between the ages of eighteen and twenty-five years, and is open to candidates who are British Subjects of Polish or Scottish extraction domiciled in Great Britain, Northern Ireland or the British Commonwealth. The successful candidate will be entitled to three years' free tuition subject to the usual regulations of the Academy.

Candidates will be required to pay a fee of one guinea on entering and to produce a certificate of birth.

If, in any year, the scholarship is not awarded, the existing holder may, with the Principal's approval, receive the benefit of the scholarship for a fourth year.

GOWLAND HARRISON BEQUEST.

Founded by the late WILLIAM GOWLAND HARRISON, Esq., in memory of his family.

A scholarship and an exhibition (alternately) are tenable at the Royal Academy of Music. They are intended to assist British-born male students in completing their musical education, preferably as Violinists.

The scholarship is competitive and its value is about £100 per annum for two years.

The exhibition, which may, but need not necessarily be competitive, provides assisted tuition for two years.

The next scholarship will be offered for competition in 1952, by students who have already passed Div. II in violin playing.

JOSEPH MAAS EXHIBITION.

(Not attached to the Royal Academy of Music.)

This exhibition is competed for in each year by the then pupils of the particular School of Music which shall in that year have been selected by the trustees. The amount of the exhibition is £10, to be appropriated to the cost of a year's instruction in the selected institution, and the competition is confined to tenor vocalists, who must be British subjects. The exhibition will be awarded to the candidate whose voice, mode of producing it, and general musical attainments will, in the opinion of the examiners appointed by the Trustees, render him most likely to take the highest position before the public as a tenor singer. The trustees have power to withhold the exhibition at any time if, in the opinion of the examiners, no candidate has evinced sufficient merit to entitle him thereto.

POULETT SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded, 1949, by bequest of the late Phoebe S. Poulett.

This scholarship, which entitles the holder to free tuition, is awarded for violin playing and is competed for under conditions to be determined on from time to time by the Committee of Management.

JOHN THOMAS (WELSH) SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded by subscription, 1883, collected mainly in the Principality, by JOHN THOMAS, Esq., (Pencerdd Gwalia), Harpist to the late King Edward VII.

This is competed for triennially by vocalists and instrumentalists between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one of both sexes, at alternate elections. Candidates must not be, nor ever have been, pupils of any public metropolitan institution for musical instruction, and either they or their parents must have been born in Wales.

Each candidate is required to pay a fee of one guinea on entering his or her name, and must produce certificate of birth.

The value of the scholarship is about £32 per annum, which is applied towards the payment of the scholar's fees for three years instruction in the Academy.

The next competition will be for vocalists and will be held in 1952.

COWLAND HARRISON BEQUEST.

Founded by the late WILLIAM HARRISON, Esq., in memory of his family.

A scholarship and an exhibition (alternately) are awarded at the Royal Academy of Music. They are intended to assist British-born male students in completing their musical education, preferably as Violinists.

The scholarship is competitive and its value is about £100 per annum for two years. The exhibition, which may, but need not necessarily be competitive, provides assisted tuition for two years.

The next scholarship will be offered for competition in 1952, by students who have already passed Div. II in violin playing.

JOSEPH MAAS EXHIBITION.

(Not attached to the Royal Academy of Music.)

This exhibition is competed for in each year by the then pupils of the particular School of Music which shall in that year have been selected by the trustees. The amount of the exhibition is £10, to be appropriated to the cost of a year's instruction in the selected institution, and the competition is confined to tenor vocalists, who must be British subjects. The exhibition will be awarded to the candidate whose voice, mode of producing it and general musical attainments will, in the opinion of the examiners appointed by the Trustees, render him most likely to take the highest position before the public as a tenor singer. The trustees have power to withhold the exhibition at any time if, in the opinion of the examiners, no candidate has evinced sufficient merit to entitle him thereto.

POULETT SCHOLARSHIP.

Founded, 1942, by bequest of the late Phoebe S. Poulett. This scholarship, which entitles the holder to free tuition, is awarded for violin playing and is competed for under conditions to be determined on from time to time by the Committee of Management.
